Lot 219/71 Isabella Boulevard, Korumburra, VIC, 3950

GIPPSLAND!

Historically Korumburra was an important black coal town which grew up to meet the Victorian demands for power in the late 19th century. Today it still has the Coal Creek Community Park and Museum which is a significant tourist attraction for the town, reminding visitors of its mining past. More recently, the town has focused on dairy and cattle for the local economy and Burra Foods, which is a processor and exporter of dairy ingredients, is a major employer in the town.

The Daisybank Estate is Korumburra's pre-eminent land estate with some very impressive houses having already been built in the estate. All lots have sealed curb and channelling, underground electricity, sewerage, telephone, water & natural gas.

The estate has a natural amphitheatre feel with each block having great views of the beautiful surrounding hills. The estate also features a playground for families with young chil
